

Attention Deficit & Hyperactivity Support Group of Southern Africa – ADHASA

In collaboration with the University of the Witwatersrand School of Education

13th Annual ADHD Conference

For Parents, Teachers & Therapists
EMBRACING AD/HD

Speakers are all top experts in their field – education, psychology, medicine, occupational therapy, and other:

- Speech therapy and auditory processing
- Occupational Therapy & Concentration
- ADD in girls
- ADHASA research project : ADD in Soweto
- Medication – diagnosis, medication and management
- Understand their Learning Styles
- Teaching methodologies for the classroom
- Essential organising skills for adults
- Labelling a child, Denying his Difficulties
- The Secrets of nutrition
- Breakfast & lunch box tips and ideas
- Essential fatty acids and Adult AD/HD

Understanding the challenges and finding coping skills can enable adults with AD/HD and parents of AD/HD children overcome difficulties and recognise the gifts.

Where: The Wits Club (entrance in Yale Road)

University of the Witwatersrand

Braamfontein, Johannesburg

When: 7 and 14 October 2006

08h00 – 17h00

Cost: R500 per person, including lunch, teas, course notes & other ADHD related information. Full time bona fide students pay R270 - Student Card to be shown upon Registration.

CPD Points applied for & Certificates awarded on request.

BOOKINGS ARE ESSENTIAL

Contact Details:

ADHASA National Office at Delta Park School

Tel : (011) 888-7655 Fax: 086 604 7124/ (011) 476 4116

Email: adhasa@telkomsa.net